Re: Request for Assistance in the Investigation of Autonomy Corporation

Dear AUSA Leach:

Enclosed are materials provided by the authorities of the United Kingdom in response to your request for assistance January 29, 2016. The documents consist of a bank records from Royal Bank of Scotland. Please review these materials for completeness. This letter outlines the appropriate use of these materials and your responsibilities as the requesting authority.

I. Authorized Uses of Materials

The enclosed materials may be used in the investigation and prosecution of those persons and offenses for which assistance has been requested and granted. Should you anticipate the need to use the materials for any other purpose (i.e., a use not stated in the request for assistance and/or not approved in the grant of assistance), please consult this office to ascertain whether authorization or approval can be secured.

II. Obligations of Requesting Authority

A. Review Materials Promptly

Unless stated otherwise, the foreign authorities generally conclude that no further assistance is needed and close their files shortly after transmittal of requested material. For that reason, please examine the enclosed materials immediately and notify the undersigned whether:

1. this request is satisfactorily executed and no further assistance is needed; or

2. this request is only partially executed, identifying which materials remain outstanding; or
3. this request should be expanded to include additional assistance not previously requested, providing a description and justification.

B. Evaluate Usefulness of Assistance

Once you have used the materials, please provide an acknowledgment and an assessment of the value of the assistance provided in a letter for this office to forward to the foreign authorities. The prosecutor's acknowledgment that the materials provided were received and whether they were useful in criminal proceedings help to ensure prompt cooperation with subsequent requests. In fact, reporting of the disposition of cases for which foreign assistance has been provided is obligatory under many treaties.

C. Notification of Status of Forfeiture Proceedings

If you have received information through this request that is used in furtherance of a forfeiture, the repatriation of funds, or a settlement involving assets otherwise subject to forfeiture, please keep this office apprised of the progress of these proceedings. Immediately inform this office should assets be forfeited or returned to the United States so that we may notify the foreign government.

D. Return Original Documents

If you have received original documents, records or articles of evidence, you are responsible for ensuring their return or obtaining through this office a declaration that return will not be required.

We thank you for your assistance in this matter, and we ask that you keep us apprised of all developments. Should you have any questions, please contact me by telephone at (202) 305-1643 or by email at Erin.Mikita@usdoj.gov. In my absence, please contact Jason Fischer, International Affairs Specialist, by telephone at (202) 305-1995 or by email at Jason.Fischer@usdoj.gov.

Sincerely,

Vaughn A. Ary
